FOOD BASKET PRICE MONTHLY

November 2016

1. Introduction

The NAMC monitors food prices at the retail level and releases regular authoritative reports. The Department of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries (DAFF) established the Food Price Monitoring Committee (FPMC) at the NAMC to track and report on food price trends in South Africa and also to provide explanations on the observed trends and advise the department on any possible action that could be taken when national and household food security is threatened. The FPMC was established after the high food price episode of 2000/01 season. The functions of the FPMC were assumed by the NAMC after the FPMC completed its work in August 2004. The NAMC issues four quarterly Food Price Monitoring Reports annually and, since 2005, also publishes an annual Food Cost Review, which documents the margins between farm prices and retail prices of the major food products, amongst other topics. In 2015, the NAMC began releasing a quarterly Farm-to-Retail-Price-Spread (FTRPS) publication, which seeks to provide more insight into the factors driving commodity and food price margins. This publication, the Food Basket Price Monthly Report, is a result of recent discussions with industry, and the need to keep watch on the movements of food prices on a more regular basis.

2. Overall inflation and food inflation

The October 2016 Consumer Price Index (CPI) released by Statistics South Africa (Stats SA) indicated that the headline CPI and the food and non-alcoholic beverage price indices were 6.4 % and 11.7 %, respectively, compared to the 6.1 % and 11.3 % of September 2016. Figure 1 show trends in the headline CPI and food and non-alcoholic beverage inflation rates on a monthly basis, from January 2012 to October 2016.

3. Comparison between urban and rural prices: October 2016

Table 1 compares prices of selected food items in rural and urban areas for October 2016. The food items which showed the largest price differences between urban and rural areas in October 2016 were:

sunflower oil 750ml at a difference of R4.33, margarine spread 500g at a R2.85 difference, super and special maize meal 2.5kg at R1.78 and R1.12, respectively, and a loaf of white bread 700g at R1.07 difference. This indicates that urban consumers paid more for some of these food items than their rural counterparts. In other cases, however, rural consumers paid more for certain products (e.g. white sugar 2.5kg, peanut butter 400g and full cream milk – long life 1ℓ) than their urban counterparts.

Table 1: Comparison between urban and rural food prices (selected food items)

Product	Rural Food Prices	Urban Food Prices	Price difference
	October 2016	October 2016	R/unit
Full cream milk – long life 1ℓ	14,24	13,97	-0,27
Loaf of brown bread 700g	11,48	12,26	0,78
Loaf of white bread 700g	12,45	13,52	1,07
Special maize 2.5 kg	23,99	25,11	1,12
Super maize 2.5 kg	27,24	29,02	1,78
Margarine spread 500g	21,92	24,77	2,85
Peanut butter 400g	27,54	26,99	-0,55
Rice 2kg	25,40	25,89	0,49
Sunflower oil 750ml	18,26	22,59	4,33
Ceylon/black tea 62.5g	11,83	12,82	0,99
White sugar 2.5kg	39,62	37,09	-2,53
Average			0.91

4. The NAMC food basket

As a response to the increasing number of queries with regards to average price information, Stats SA recently introduced additional specific codes for different packaging sizes as from January 2016, instead of converting variable sizes to one standardised unit (pre-January 2016). Therefore, the food basket below will be re-calculated using this new methodology, taking all observations obtained and then calculates an average price per kilogram.

This section is based on the cost of a basic food basket, based on monthly average food price data for the period October 2015 to October 2016. Composition of the current food basket is as follows: apples (per kg), bananas (per kg), beef chuck (per kg), brick margarine (500g), baked beans - tinned (410g), cabbage (per kg), Ceylon/black tea (62.5g), chicken portions - fresh (per kg), chicken portions - frozen (weighted average per kg), eggs (1.5 dozen), canned fish (excl. tuna) (425g), full cream milk - long life (1ℓ), instant coffee (750g), loaf of brown bread (700g), loaf of white bread (700g), maize meal super (5kg), onions (per kg), oranges (per kg), peanut butter (400g), potatoes (per kg), rice (2kg), sunflower oil (750ml) and tomatoes (per kg). From October 2015 to October 2016, the cost of this basic 23 item food basket increased by approximately R 64.38 (+ 12.13 %), in nominal terms from R 530.69 to R 595.07.

The food basket products highlighted in Table 2 whose annual inflation rates exceed the South African Reserve Bank's (SARB) inflation upper band of 6 % are: baked beans – tinned 410 g (12.74 %) peanut butter 400g (17.35 %), instant coffee 750g (13.45 %), Ceylon/black tea 62.5g (15.29 %), full cream milk – long life 1ℓ (10.09 %), brick margarine 500g (11.90 %), sunflower oil 750ml (17.17 %), bananas – fresh per kg (34.21 %), oranges – fresh per kg (79.20 %), beef chuck – fresh per kg (6.58 %), fish (excl. tuna) – tinned 425g (7.41 %), loaf of brown bread 700g (13.83 %); loaf of white bread 700g (13.61 %); maize meal 5kg (super) (37.83 %), rice 2kg (9.06 %), onions – fresh per kg (31.21 %) and potatoes – fresh per kg (25.21 %).

To further explore the impact of inflation on consumers, Figure 2 presents an illustration of the average annual nominal cost growth of specific food groups within the 23-item food basket, for the period October 2015 to October 2016. During October 2016, Figure 2 illustrates the dominance of fruit, bread/cereals, bean products and fats/oils, within the cost of the basic food basket.
