FOOD BASKET PRICE MONTHLY

August 2017

The basket of food products included in this publication is derived from the latest release of the Income and Expenditure Survey (IES) of 2014/15', compiled by Statistics South Africa (Stats SA). This basket is to be representative of consumer spending on food and, as a result of the IES 2014/15 release and the CPI base year (2016=100) change, the food basket had to be altered.

In the latest price information, Stats SA introduced additional products as from January 2017, and excluded some of the pre-January 2017 products. The food basket below will now have to be re-calculated using the new information, taking additional observations/products obtained to include in the new basket. As a result, annual comparisons in this publication, will not be possible in the short-term, but will indicate the monthly changes from January 2017.

The NAMC will continue to investigate and involve industry experts in finalising a new basket, based on the latest consumer behaviour. Cognisance of the above background should therefore be taken when interpreting the data.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THIS PUBLICATION

- Food inflation reached 6.8% in July 2017, year-on-year (y-o-y), compared to the 6.9% as reported in June 2017.
- Food inflation decelerated slightly to reach 6.8% in July 2017. This could be attributed to the higher agricultural output following good summer rainfall across the country. With the exception of meat, most other food products have decelerated. This on the back of the Avian Influenza outbreak as key driver of increased meat inflation, as well as the cattle restocking process after the 2015-16 drought.
- In July 2017, the cost of the NAMC's 28-item urban food basket was R834.43 compared to the R836.11 reported in June 2017, indicating a slight month-on-month (m-o-m) decrease of 0.2%.

1. Introduction

The NAMC monitors food prices at the retail level and releases regular authoritative reports. The Department of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries (DAFF) established the Food Price Monitoring Committee (FPMC) at the NAMC to track and report on food price trends in South Africa and also to provide explanations on the observed trends and advise the department on any possible action that could be taken when national and household food security is threatened. The FPMC was established after the high food price episode of 2000/01 season. The functions of the FPMC were assumed by the NAMC after the FPMC completed its work in August 2004. The NAMC issues four quarterly Food Price Monitoring Reports annually and, since 2005, also publishes an annual Food Cost Review, which documents the margins between farm prices and retail prices of the major food products, amongst other topics. In 2015, the NAMC began releasing a quarterly Farm-to-Retail-Price-Spread (FTRPS) publication, which seeks to provide more insight into the factors driving commodity and food price margins. This publication, the Food Basket Price

Monthly Report, is a result of recent discussions with industry, and the need to keep watch on the movements of food prices on a more regular basis.

2. Overall inflation and food inflation

The July 2017 Consumer Price Index (CPI) released by Statistics South Africa (Stats SA) indicated that the headline CPI and the food and non-alcoholic beverage price indices were 4.6% and 6.8%, respectively, compared to the 5.1% and 6.9% in June 2017. Figure 1 shows trends in the headline CPI and food and non-alcoholic beverage inflation rates on a monthly basis, from January 2012 to July 2017.

3. Comparison between urban and rural prices: July 2017

Table 1 compares prices of selected food items in rural and urban areas for July 2017. The food items which showed the largest price differences between urban and rural areas in July 2017 were: sunflower oil 750ml at a difference of R4.46, margarine spread 500g at a R4.35 difference, Ceylon/black tea 62.5g at a R2.28 difference, and a loaf of white bread 700g at R0.93. This indicates that urban consumers paid more for some of these food items than their rural counterparts. In other cases, however, rural consumers paid more for certain products (e.g. super maize meal 2.5kg, full cream milk – long life 1l, peanut butter 400g, and white sugar 2.5kg), than their urban counterparts.

Table 1: Comparison between urban and rural food prices (selected food items)

4. The NAMC food basket

This section is based on the cost of a basic 28-item food basket, based on average food price data for the period July 2016 to July 2017. Composition of the current food basket (as revised in 2017) is as follows: Apples (per kg), Baked beans – tinned (410g), Bananas fresh (per kg), Beans – dried (500g), Beef mince fresh (per kg), Beef offal fresh (per kg), Cabbage (per kg), Ceylon/black tea (250g), Cheddar cheese (per kg), Chicken giblets per kg, Eggs (1.5 dozen), Fish (excl. tuna) - tinned (400g), Full cream milk - long life (1ℓ), Instant coffee (250g), IQF chicken portions (2kg), Loaf of brown bread (700g), Loaf of white bread (700g), Margarine brick (500g), Onions fresh (per kg), Oranges (per kg), Peanut butter (400g), Polony (per kg), Potatoes fresh (per kg), Rice (2kg), Sugar white (2.5kg), Sunflower oil (750mℓ), Super maize meal (5kg) and Tomatoes fresh (per kg).

In July 2017, the cost of this basic urban food basket was R834.43 compared to the R836.11 in June 2017, indicating a slight month-on-month decrease of 0.2%. Due to the inclusion of additional products in the new CPI basket (dried beans, 2kg frozen chicken, beef offal and chicken offal) (with no observations for these new products prior to January 2017), no annual comparison can be made for the current basket with July 2016.

The food basket products highlighted in Table 2 whose annual inflation rates exceed the South African Reserve Bank's (SARB) inflation upper band of 6%, include the following: baked beans – tinned 410g (6.1%), peanut butter 400g (14%), Ceylon/black tea 250g (12.3%), cheddar cheese per kg (8.4%), apples – fresh per kg (7.2%), beef mince – fresh per kg (11.9%), polony per kg (14.2%), cabbage – fresh per kg (15.7%), and white sugar 2.5kg (19.1%).

To further explore the impact of inflation on consumers, Figure 2 presents an illustration of the average monthly nominal cost growth of specific food groups within the 28-item food basket, comparing the period July vs. June 2017. Comparing July vs. June 2017 monthly prices, Figure 2 illustrates the following food categories experienced increased inflation: meat, bean products, fats & oils and sugary foods, within the cost of the basic food basket.
