

END YEAR FUNCTION

By: Samella Nozibele

The National Agricultural Marketing Council hosted its End Year function on the 30th November 2018 in Midrand - Sikalami. The intention of the end year function was to express gratitude to the NAMC team, celebrate employees' accomplishments and successes, review challenges and obstacles the NAMC as a family went through.

Our program directors for the day was Samella Nozibele (communications unit) and Brain Makhele (agribusiness division). Abram Maifadi otherwise known as “DJ AbrizZzy” was on the decks and serenaded us with good music. -The Women’s Diversity Forum and Men Diversity Forum Chairpersons Nonhlanhla Gwamanda and Ndumiso Mazibuko summed up the thoughts of 2018.

Chief Executive Officer Zama Xalisa, appreciated the work done by staff and commended all efforts to meet NAMC targets. He also pleaded with NAMC staff to wear a new attitude of being servants of the public particularly assisting farmers. Again, the professionalism of NAMC staff to stakeholders clearly indicated the high moral value we uphold our work.

The best performing employees per division for 2018 are;

- ◇ Daniel Rambau - Corporate Support Services
