
STATEMENT ON THE PASSING OF FORMER NAMC COUNCIL MEMBER MR FRANK LAWRENCE

The National Agricultural Marketing Council (NAMC) joins the agricultural community in mourning the death of agriculturalist Mr Frank Lawrence.

Mr Lawrence is a former board member of the NAMC and was one of the leading figures in the potato industry.

Mr Lawrence obtained his B.Sc. Agric (Economics) from the University of KwaZulu-Natal, and a B.Sc. Hon from the University of Pretoria. He formally took farming fulltime in 1979 after working for the then Department of Agriculture.

“The NAMC passes its condolences to the Lawrence family and wishes them strength in this time of mourning”, said the Chairperson of the NAMC, Mr Angelo Petersen.

May His Soul Rest in Peace.

Ends.
