

WELCOME TO NAMC

MR. BARNABAS MATSOBANE MPYANA SENIOR ECONOMIST

The National Agricultural Marketing Council (NAMC) has appointed Mr Barnabas Mpyana as a Senior Economist within the Statutory Measures (Agricultural Regulatory Measures) division, the appointment date is effective as of the 01st August 2022.

Previously he served at Fruit SA, as Industry Affairs Manager, responsible for conducting research, monitoring legislation trends and advising the fruit industry accordingly. Before joining Fruit SA, Mr Mpyana worked at the National Agricultural Marketing Council (NAMC) as an intern and thereafter as an agricultural economist under the agricultural industry trusts division.

Also, Mr Mpyana was part of a technical committee team responsible for coordinating the Agriculture and Agro-Processing Master Plan (AAMP), a multi stakeholder social compact and serves as secretariat and stakeholder mobilization specialist.

BM, as his affectionately known in the industry, holds an honours degree in Agricultural Economics from the University of Limpopo (Turfloop) and a Masters Degree in Agricultural Economics from the North West University (Potchefstroom).

The NAMC wishes him prosperity in his new role as Senior Economist, Statutory Measures.